

December

Snow says,
"Let me cover you."

Laura Lush,
The First Day of Winter

Tuesday, December 1
11:00 to noon
The Essence of Landscape
Rick Fleury discusses his work, its progressions and his inspirations at the Cahoon Museum, Cotuit.

Winter's Glow oil Penny Billings 12 x 16 $2,500

Christmas is not a time nor a season, but a state of mind. To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas.

Calvin Coolidge

Saturday, December 5
1:00 to 3:00
Elves Around the Cove
Find the elves at businesses on Route 28 and Cove Road for chances to win hundreds of dollars in prizes.

Saturday, December 12
5:30 to 7:30
Addison Art Gallery
Collectors' Holiday Party

Friday, December 18
5:00 - 7:00
Orleans
Progressive Music Night
Susan Seligson and Karen Rosenblatt, flutists, at Addison Art

Ballet Pairs oil on canvas Laura Griffith 24 x 36 $4,000

At the Provincetown Art Association and Museum
The Members' Open Small Works Exhibition is showing through January 17. Opening on December 4: Festival of Trees Exhibition and Silent Auction, Holiday Cards Exhibition, Recent Gifts to the Permanent Collection and Generations Exhibition. On December 19, Winter Jazz with Bart Weisman. For more information, please visit paam.org.

At the Cape Cod Museum of Art
Betsy Bennett Retrospective through January 17 with a talk by curator Michael Giaquinto on Thursday, December 3. For more information and other activities, please visit ccmoa.org.

Our Boston Visit

November brought us over the bridge for the International Fine Art Show, an extravaganza that gets better every year. It was a great show for us where we were delighted to see many of our loyal collectors, and to introduce new collectors to the artists we represent.

Addison Art Welcomes Cate Hunter Kashem

Cate was born in 1981 in Boston to artist Robert Douglas Hunter and museum director Elizabeth Ives Hunter. She earned a Master's in French literature from Boston University, and has been painting full time since 2007. She maintains a studio in Cambridge.

Her first art teacher was her father, and to him she owes a great deal. She studied formally at the New School of Classical Art under Dana Levin. She also studied cast and life drawing under Robert Cormier and received additional landscape instruction with David Curtis.

She is a member of the Cambridge Art Association, the Cape Cod Art Association and the Copley Society. She was the 2009 artist-in-resident at the Cape Cod Art Association. Her work has been displayed at the Cape Cod Museum of Art, the Copley Society, the Manchester Historical Society, Bedford/St. Martin's Publishing, Newton Country Day School and the Cambridge Center for Adult Education.

It is Christmas in the heart that puts Christmas in the air.

W. T. Ellis

Basking encaustic, oil, charcoal, shellac on maple Marc Kundmann 15 x 18 $1,650

Wishing you all the best in this holiday season

Whether surfing in the Caribbean, knitting a scarf for a stranger or traversing the Louvre, my wish is that your holiday season is filled with joy. May you have time with loved ones and find moments of peace for yourself.

Helen

Memory Meadow oil on canvas Kate Hunter Kashem 12 x 24, 15.5 x 27.5 $875