

Passionate OUTLOOKS

Pillow Repose oil on panel Paul Schulenburg 18 x 24, framed 24 x 30 $2,800

It is not the absence, but the mastery, of our passions which affords happiness.

Mme. Francoise d'Aubigne de Maintenon

Passion Show Reception

Saturday, February 17
from 5:30 to 7:30

The desolate beauty and quiet of a New England winter makes fertile ground for creativity. The Passion Show offers an opportunity to see contemplative work produced away from the pressures of the high season.

The high quality of the work (about 50 new pieces) coming into the gallery for the show will surely speak to art appreciators. We hope you can join us.

Presents with meaning

The thoughtfulness of an original piece of art. A framed gift certificate. Books of poetry, art and Cape Cod tales.

Complimentary gift wrapping. If we can help you with memorable gifts, please let us know.

Looking Back oil on panel Logan Hagege
18 x 14, framed 26 x 22 $1,550.

Moonlight and Quiet acrylic Odin Smith 8 x 10, framed 12.5 x 14.5 $650