Oil painting Demonstration

"Where do I Start?"

Joan Brancale will develop a landscape using her plein air sketch, photos and other reference, integrating them into a larger work which will take on a life of its own, enhanced by memory, choices and expressive brushwork. She enjoys explaining her process as she paints and invites questions along the way.

Saturday, July 17 from 2:00 to 4:00

A Totally Different Demonstration

Join Mary Moquin and Marc Kundmann as they work together to create a painting incorporating their individual techniques, hot and cold wax, charcoal, oil paints, prints, brushes, knives and a blowtorch. While working, Marc and Mary will explain their processes and artistic decisions as they inspire each other on their way to a finished painting.

Marc Kundmann 15 x 24 $1,850

Saturday, July 17 from 5:30 to 7:30

Translucent Revelations

New works by Marc Kundmann and Mary Moquin incorporating layers of wax and oils. Wax as a medium dates back to the ancient Greeks and is experiencing a vibrant resurgence with contemporary artists striving to go beyond the traditional.

Sunday, July 18 from 2:00 to 4:00

Steps of a Work in Progress

Marc Kundman and Mary Moquin will continue to work on the collaborative painting they began July 17. The truly mixed media work incorporates hot and cold wax, charcoal, oil paints and prints, as well as the techniques of each of these award-winning artists. The artists will also be working individually on the painting throughout the week. Visit often to watch the progress and on Saturday, July 23, to see the painting completed.
