

“Summer is the time when one sheds one’s tensions with one’s clothes, and the right kind of day is jeweled balm for the battered spirit. A few of those days and you can become drunk with the belief that all’s right with the world.”

Ada Louise Huxtable

2009 July

“You have to love a nation that celebrates its independence every July 4th, not with a parade of guns, tanks, and soldiers who file by the White House in a show of strength and muscle, but with family picnics where kids throw Frisbees, the potato salad gets iffy, and the flies die from happiness. You may think you have overeaten, but it is patriotism.”
Erma Bombeck

Destination: Inspiration Show and Salon

A show of works inspired by distant locales and a salon featuring artists and writers discussing how travel expands their horizons, giving them the influences to produce works with greater intrigue and understanding.

For this event, the Addison Art Gallery happily welcomes Susan Seligson, author of Going with the Grain: A Wandering Bread-lover Takes a Bite Out of Life, which was published by Simon & Schuster and has been translated into four languages. “As a writer I love to travel because it puts me in the moment and helps me see the world — and myself — more clearly. Just being somewhere new — it could be Calcutta or Charleston — puts all my senses on high alert . . . soaking up the sights, sounds and smells of a place . . . these sensations inform my writing and my sense of people and the world.” Susan Seligson

Featured visual artists include Ann Trainor Domingue, Logan Hagege, Kim Victoria Kettler and John Wood.
