

June

“And what is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days.”

JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL

Saturday, June 12 from 5:30 to 7:30

Hope at Work

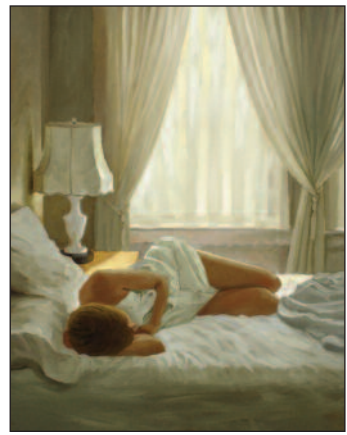

This fun reception will feature student art to benefit the Lower Cape Outreach Council, an organization that provides food, clothing and financial support to individuals and families in need, leading to healthy, productive and self-sustaining lives that are part of the Cape Cod community.

Friday, June 18 from 5:30 to 7:30

Rick Fleury Painting Raffle

Orleans Historical Society, 3 River Road

Join Rick Fleury for an evening in this historic building and to learn more about this organization.

Saturday, June 19 from 5:30 to 7:30

Paul Schulenburg, One Man Show

Paul's 2010 show is receiving national attention and sales began with early previews. Paul's show is now available online.

Saturday, June 26 from 10:00 to 5:30

Trunk Show, Carol Maguire

Carol Maguire is a celebrated artist known for her painterly style, saturated colors and joie de vivre. Carol Maguire Home is a line of table linens inspired by Carol's original paintings.

Saturday, June 26 from 5:30 to 7:30

New Oils by Carol Maguire

Carol paints the objects that surround daily life: family treasures, garage-sale finds, with glorious fruits and flowers. The results are paintings that add joy to homes and to lives.

This Saturday, the gallery will display the Fleury painting that Rick has donated for the Orleans Historical Society's 2010 fundraising efforts.

Sunday, June 27 from 10:00 to 6:00

Carol Maguire Trunk Show

Sunday, June 27 from 1:00 to 3:00

Carol Maguire Oil Painting demonstration

Cape Cod Food & Drink

Dine at Wellfleet's Wicked Oyster and Eastham's Arnold's Lobster & Clam Bar for great food and fun times surrounded by great art.

Enjoy complimentary tastings of Cape Cod Beer and find "a vacation in every pint" at the Addison Art Gallery Saturday, June 19 from 5:30 to 7:30. Cape Cod Beer is Cape Cod's only microbrewery, with beer on draught in and growlers between Plymouth and Provincetown. Be Cape Cod, taste local.

“The summer night is like a perfection of thought.” WALLACE STEVENS

Lynne Foy

Cleber Stecei

New Faces at Addison Art

In addition to recently adding Cleber Stecei and Lynne Foy to our roster of established and emerging artists, the Addison Art Gallery has two new art enthusiasts to assist collectors.

Katie Motta worked at the Provincetown Art Association and Museum and as an artist's assistant. A resident of Truro, Katie graduated from Mass College of Art.

Molly White, an honors graduate of Wheaton College, majored in studio art and art history and studied in Florence, Italy and Athens, Greece. Molly resides in Chatham.

Marc Hanson, also fairly new with the gallery, joined us this winter as part of the Creative Convergence show. Marc was honored with a First Place for a landscape from this year's Oil Painters of America Annual Juried Exhibition.

The reception for Marc's One Man Show will be held Friday, July 30 from 5:30 to 7:30. Previews will be available at the gallery and online, and will be featured in American Art Collector magazine.

“If a June night could talk, it would probably boast it invented romance.” BERN WILLIAMS

Out & About

Through June 27, Cotuit Center for the Arts, 4404 Route 28, Cotuit, is presenting Remembered Encounters, a solo exhibition of recent work by Mary Moquin. You can visit with Mary, who will be working on site, Monday through Friday from 10:00- 3:00.

Historic Highfield Hall, 56 Highfield Drive, Falmouth, is displaying art by Addison artists through June 9.

Visiting Provincetown

The New York Times describes Land's End Inn as "a lavishly decorated outpost atop the West End with extravagant views and gorgeous grounds." For information and reservations, visit landsendinn.com.

When in Provincetown, be sure to visit the Provincetown Art Association & Museum. Event and exhibition information can be found at paam.org.

addisonart.com 508.255.6200