

Spring being a tough act to follow,

God created

June

Al Bernstein

Pink Tulips oil Pharr Schulenburg 24 x 24 $2,750

Calendar

Celebrating the Female Form in Art & Literature Reception Saturday, June 2 5:30 to 7:30

AddisonArtGallery will hold a reception and booksigning for Stacked, A 32DDD Reports from the Front accompanied by a show of figurative work. By Susan Seligson, Stacked, an intimate cultural exploration of breast obsession, has attracted wide media coverage including The New York Times, Glamour, Playboy, Atlantic Monthly, Times of London, New York Observer, BBC Radio and Boston Globe.

Susan Seligson's writings have appeared in The New York Times, Salon.com, Atlantic Monthly, Yankee, New England Monthly, Boston Globe, Outside and on public radio. She lives in Truro with her husband, cartoonist Howie Schneider.

No one is even sure why women have breasts when not pregnant or nursing, but start a conversation about them, Susan Seligson discovered, and every woman, man, child, and drag queen has something to say. Seligson relates the history of the bra and takes us on a quest for the perfect one. She explores the thinking of surgeons who do hundreds of breast implants a year and academics suspicious of our changing standards of femininity. Susan writes throughout with the wisdom and humor of a woman who knows what it is to wield body parts so powerful they can make men crash cars.

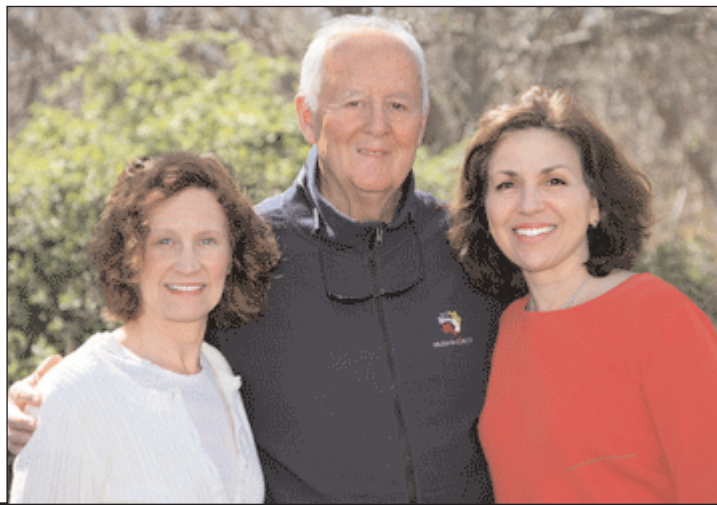

In This Issue	Page
June Calendar	1-3
In the News	2-3
Fundraising News	3
Painting Demonstrations	3

The Cape Cod Connection Wine Tasting Benefit Saturday, June 16 5:30 to 7:30

Featuring new works by Laura Anderson, John F. Murphy and Angela Zoni Mault, plus introducing the John F. Murphy Artist Wine Series. These wines, unique blends of wines that have been assembled by Bob Valchuis in Bordeaux, France, feature Murphy paintings on their labels.

A portion of the proceeds

calendar continued on page 2

from wine sales goes towards scholarships for Nauset students. The wines may be purchased at Orleans Wine & Spirits. $50. from the sale of each of the Clammer and Red Tables prints will go towards scholarships as well.

The Art of the Oyster Wine Tasting Print Signing Saturday, June 23 from 4 to 6

Nathan Nickerson, III and AddisonArt hope you and your friends can join us in this celebration of the bounty of the sea at Arnold's Lobster and Clam Bar on Route 6 in Eastham. Meet artist Kim Victoria Kettler and discover her stunning interpretations of our sea and shores in oils, pastels, monoprints and posters.

Kim's paintings can be found in many prestigious collections including those of BankBoston, Children's Hospital, First Atlanta Bank, Marui Corporation (Japan), Saks Fifth Avenue, and in private collections on six continents. Now a Kettler oyster can be found on Arnold's women's t-shirts.

A portion of the proceeds from the sale of these t-shirts and prints will benefit SPAT, the non-profit organization devoted to shellfishing traditions and the arts.

Spring Table After the Flats oil on canvas Kim Victoria Kettler
24 x 36, framed 32 x 44 $2,400, signed prints $100

You go girl!

We're happy to announce that Page McMahan (pictured with Tim Sweeney and Ed Banks at the Fundraiser for Breast Cancer) raised over $10,000 for the Avon Foundation.

A big thank you to Tim and Ed for performing, for all those who donated to this most worthy cause and, of course, to Page for doing all that she did.

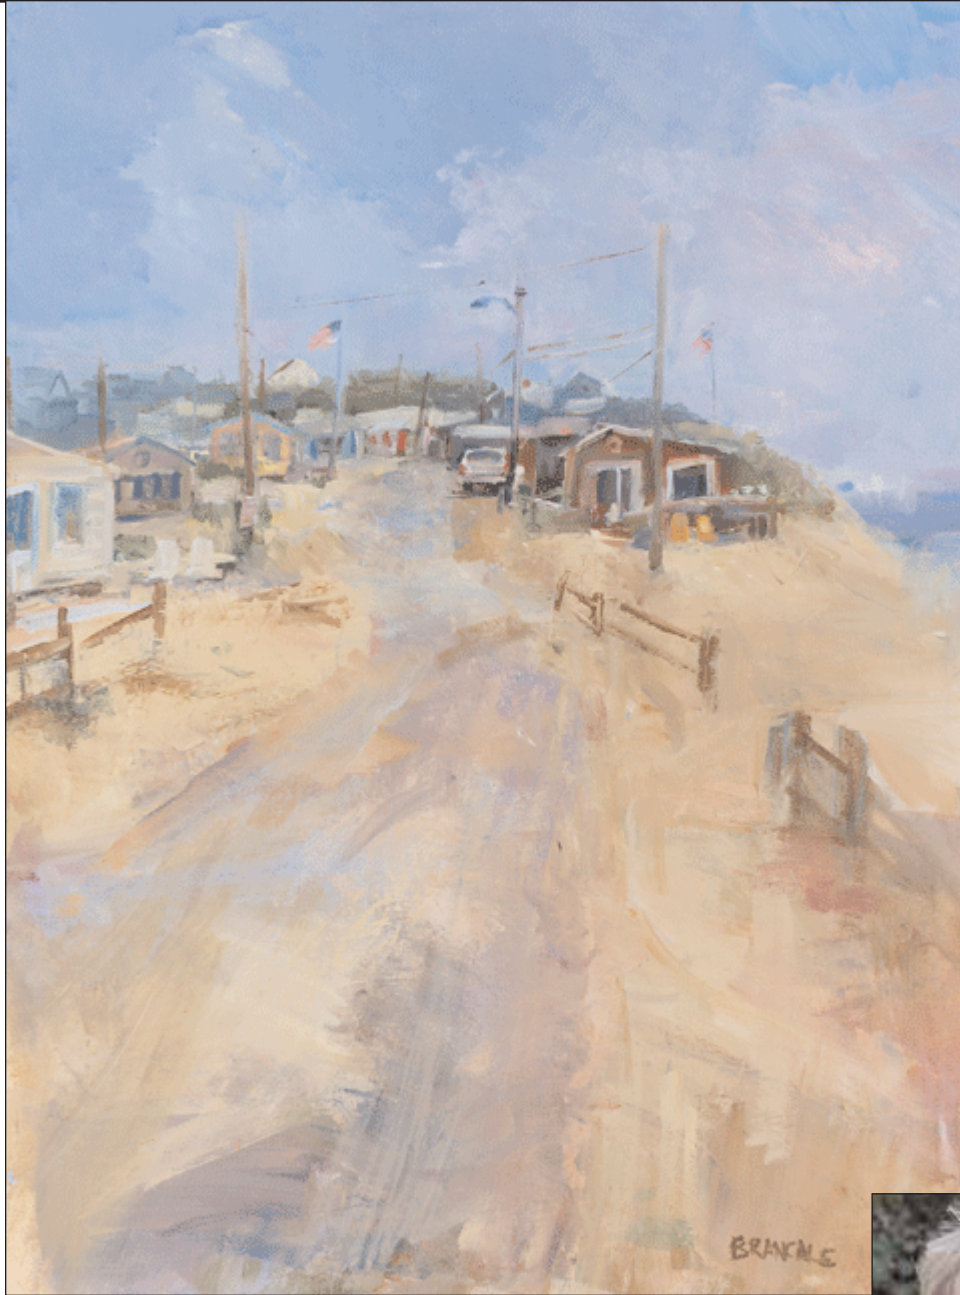

In The News

Pharr Schulenburg is featured in the June issue of American Art Collector. Editor Joshua Rose says her "painterly compositions and floral still lifes share a sort of magic." The July issue will feature special section on Cape Cod and an extended feature on Paul Schulenburg. To give our collectors first glance, the paintings that appear in these issues can be seen in advance at addisonart.com.

Upon publication, complimentary copies of American Art Collector are available at AddisonArt.

The 2007 edition of Cape Arts Review will feature Alla Chekhova as an emerging artist. Editor and Publisher Gillian Drake chose AddisonArt to be highlighted as a Portrait of an Art Gallery. She says "it has become a gallery of choice for a large number of collectors, as well as the home of some of the most sought-after artists on Cape Cod."

"If a June night could talk, it would probably boast that it invented romance."
Bern Williams

Old Cottage Colony oil Joan Brancale 24 x 18 $1,300.

“And what is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days; Then Heaven tries earth if it be in tune, And over it softly her warm ear lays.” James Russell

Somewhere to Go oil Eric Walker 12 x 16 $850

Joan Brancale
Gavin Brooks

Opening Reception

Saturday, June 30 from 5:30 to 7:30

New works by two award-winning plein air oil painters. Previews at the gallery on Friday, June 29 and now at addisonart.com.

How did they do that?

Painting Demonstrations

Saturday, June 16 1-3 Mary Moquin

Mary will demonstrate the creative process she uses when developing the concept for her paintings.

While painting, she will discuss the initial inspiration, the use of value patterns and the color options that help express that inspiration. She will show how she translates a feeling or impression into a unique expressive painting.

Saturday, June 23 1-3 Joan Brancale

Joan will demonstrate developing a landscape painting idea: designing the composition with thumbnail value studies, then underpainting the composition's value pattern with acrylic before painting with oils.

As she paints she will discuss why she is making particular choices, color issues and paint application techniques.

Catch a Rising Star

A member of Oil Painters of America, Eric Emile Walker was given an Award of Distinction for "A Quiet Harbor" at the 2007 National Juried Exhibit of the American Impressionist Society. AddisonArt will hold a show reception for Eric on Saturday September 1. From 1 to 3 on September 2, Eric will give a painting demonstration.

To get news, artist updates and invitations please send your email address to helen@addisonart.com. Thank you.

508.255.6200 addisonart.com